The premises will operate an age verification policy set at a minimum of 25 years, whereby any person attempting to buy alcohol who appears to be under the specified age will be asked for photographic identification (ID) to prove their age. All forms of advertising and promotional literature detailing the delivery service (including internet sites and flyers/leaflets) will clearly state that alcohol should only be purchased for delivery to intended recipients (or persons who will accept delivery on behalf of the named recipient) who are aged over 18 years. Customers will be reminded that it is a criminal offence for a person under 18 years to purchase or attempt to purchase alcohol and that it is also an offence to purchase alcohol on behalf of a person aged under 18 years.
12. At the time the order is placed a declaration will be required from the person placing the order that that person is aged over 18 years of age, and that the intended recipient is over 18 years of age. This process will be documented, (tick box before proceeding, record of verbal acknowledgement or similar). These records must be retained for no less than twelve months and produced on request to an officer of a Responsible Authority.
13. For deliveries where the alcohol is delivered by a third party, the alcohol is concealed in a secure sealed package, and the DPS has no direct supervision or control over the delivery (such as an independent courier or Royal Mail), there cannot be an age verification challenge on delivery, but the above conditions will be followed.
14. For deliveries made directly by the DPS or their employees, staff or agent or persons instructed by the DPS/Premises Licence Holder (PLH), the person accepting the delivery must be aged 18 years or over. Where the person accepting delivery appears to be under 25 years, a recognised photographic ID must be produced prior to delivery. No ID, no delivery.
15. Where the premises contracts a third party to deliver alcohol on their behalf and the person collecting the alcohol from the premises delivers it directly to the customer within a short timescale (such as Deliveroo, Just Eat), the premises will ensure that the third party:
  - only employs delivery employees or agents aged 18 years or over;
  - is aware that alcohol is included in the delivery;
  - that the delivery person actively engages with the person receiving delivery and operates a challenge 25 policy rather than just handing the delivery over;
  - that in the event that the recipient of the alcohol is challenged for ID and does not provide appropriate and valid ID, the delivery person will retain the alcohol and return it to the premises.
